

INTRODUCING OUR 2018-2019 SEASON

Lexington Symphony is a professional orchestra of celebrated musicians who share a passion for classical music and understand the power of music to build community. Founded in 1995, Lexington Symphony's dual mission combines performance of six affordable and accessible world-class concerts in the heart of MetroWest with award-winning educational outreach programs introducing classical music to audiences of all ages and reaching thousands of area youth annually.

Named one of the "busiest conductors in the world"* for the second year in a row, Maestro Jonathan McPhee's tireless focus and penchant for innovative programming entertains and enlightens audiences. A catalyst for Lexington Symphony's organizational and artistic growth, McPhee has led orchestras around the globe. After having served as Music Director for Boston Ballet for the past 27 years, Mr. McPhee now maintains an active guest conducting schedule with orchestras and ballet companies around the world.

» Note! Our new concert start time is 7:30PM.

CONDUCTOR'S TALKS

Join Maestro Jonathan McPhee for his Conductor's Talk, an up-close and informal discussion prior to each regular season program**. Mr. McPhee brings classical music to life with relatable insights into composers, compositions, and classical music in general. Get inside the minds of the great composers. Conductor's Talks educate the audience and enhance the concert experience.

Classic Beauty

SEPTEMBER 22, 2018 | SATURDAY, 7:30PM

Prokofiev | Classical Symphony, Op. 25 (Symphony No. 1)
Schubert | Symphony No. 8 D.759, B minor (Unfinished)
Mozart | Symphony No. 38, K. 504 "Prague"

Sparkling with brilliance and imagination, these three symphonic works broke new ground when they were written. They are truly enduring classics, each marking the beginning of a burst of creativity for its composer.

Preserving Heritage

NOVEMBER 10, 2018 | SATURDAY, 7:30PM

Verdi | Nabucco: Overture
Canteloube | Songs of the Auvergne
Kendra Colton, Soprano
Hindemith | Mathis der Maler (Symphony)

Composers throughout history have captured the struggles and triumphs of cultures being preserved during times of turmoil. Through Verdi capturing the struggle of the Jewish people exiled from their homeland to Canteloube preserving the culture of the Auvergne region and Hindemith understanding the struggles of World War II, this concert will inspire and uplift.

Holiday POPS!* with New World Chorale

DECEMBER 7, 2018 | FRIDAY, 4PM & 7:30PM
DECEMBER 9, 2018 | SUNDAY, 2PM

Join us for this growing Lexington tradition! Every season, Jonathan McPhee finds a new twist on popular music from the Holiday Season, ensuring a fresh experience that brings family and community together in the spirit of celebration.

"Music gives a soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination and life to everything." — PLATO

Don't miss Hana Chang!

Fresh Perceptions

MARCH 30, 2019 | SATURDAY, 7:30PM

Prokofiev | The Prodigal Son
Mendelssohn | Violin concerto, Op. 64
— Hana Chang, Violin
Franck | Symphony in D

This concert features three works that take a fresh look at the music of their time. The Prodigal Son was the creative spark of a collaboration that would last for years to come and would forge new paths for Prokofiev and ballet choreographer George Balanchine. César Franck's Symphony in D combines musical styles never heard before, with luxurious, deeply emotional melodies. Hana Chang, our featured young violinist from Lexington is a rising star, winning accolades internationally.

The Muse

FEBRUARY 16, 2019 | SATURDAY, 7:30PM

Stravinsky | Concerto in D
Finzi | Clarinet Concerto, Op. 31
— Bill Kirkley, Clarinet
Nielsen | Little Suite for Strings Op. 1
Stravinsky | Apollon Musagète

In Greek mythology, Apollo led the nine muses who presided over the arts and sciences. Likewise, this program brings together a wide variety of styles that ignited the creative spark in choreographers such as George Balanchine and Jerome Robbins. All of these works have a musical and visual narrative that is compelling and evocative.

* A Lexington Symphony Signature Event

"The nurturing and care of an orchestra has to do with how connected it is to the community. It's a circle — and that circle of people is how you measure its success."
— MAESTRO JONATHAN MCPHEE

Community Music Festival & Music from the Movies*

MAY 4, 2019 | SATURDAY, 2PM & 7:30PM
2-5PM: COMMUNITY MUSIC FESTIVAL
